

BROOKLYN.

EVERY ACT WAS DISHONEST.

McKane, Newton and Sutherland
Swindled Even in Ioe.Now They Are Accused of Perjury, Swindling and Jugglery.

When John Y. McKane and ex-Justices of the Peace Richard V. B. Newton and "Kenny" Sutherland are released from prison, they may have to stand trial for swindling, perjury and unlawfully juggling accounts. Sutherland, of Brooklyn, made a discovery to-day that this Gravesend trio, while at the head of the Hygienic Ice Company, of Coney Island, defrauded many creditors with false reports. Notes were floated for thousands of dollars and many raised. As he was going through an alley at 1555 Dean street, to reach a tenement in a rear house, he was suddenly seized from behind and held fast while an old coat was thrown over his head. The man who held him rendered him helpless by pressing his arms close to his body.

Mr. Smith also says he was gripped so firmly and the coat was so heavy that he was almost smothered. He was too much frightened to make any outcry. One of the men thrust his hand into Smith's pocket and secured his money. While searching his other pocket the man tore his clothing. After the thieves secured their plunder they jerked the coat from Smith's head, taking his hat with it, and sent him reeling to the sidewalk.

Another highway robbery was reported at 2 o'clock this morning by John C. Haggerty, who was walking along Jay street, a few minutes before, when a man approached and struck him a stinging blow in the face.

As he fell against a railing his assailant scabbled his gold watch and chain, worth $100, and ran away. Detectives are at work on the case.

Thieves were quite active last night in all sections of the city, and as a result, the police are busy to-day searching for stolen property.

Liquor War in Long Island City Getting to Be Warm.
(Special to The Evening World.)
LONG ISLAND CITY, Dec. 4.—The three hundred and odd saloon-keepers of this city are agitated over the Sunday crusade inaugurated by Mayor H. S. Sanford.

Last night clergymen rallied to the Mayor's support, and with two-score of citizens held a meeting in Smithson's hall. The Liquor Dealers' Association, unaware of the proposed meeting of the clergy, met and adopted a resolution to furnish members counsel if arrested, and to pay fines.

Saloon-keepers have ordered cards placed conspicuously in every saloon, stating that no liquor, wine, beer or ale will be sold to minors under sixteen, and imposing a penalty of $25 on any member who fails to observe.

Is often due, not to exposure, but to an impure condition of the blood. In any event it may prove a serious affair. It may end in a settled case of catarrh, that most loathsome of diseases, and finally frequently leads to bronchitis or consumption. The only safe way is to purify the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures which is the best remedy for catarrh, because it reaches the seat of the disease. Begin now to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and guard against these dangers, by building up the entire system.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation.

McKane's Friend Newton's Luck.
Reverend R. V. Newton, one of John Y. McKane's followers, now living at the State's exposed giving away liquor or cigars Christmas or New Year.

Richard Price, eighteen years old, of 108 Fourteenth street, Brooklyn, was held for the Grand Jury by Justice Tigue, in the Butler Street Police Court this morning, for breaking into his father's house.

Charles Price, the father, said his son was a bad boy, and that he could do nothing with him. He had ordered the boy to keep away from the house, but last night his son gained an entrance by tearing off the blind and kicking in the door of a basement window. The elder Price then called in Policeman Kane, of the Fifth avenue station, who took the boy to the station house.

Young Price has but one arm. He told Justice Tigue that sometime ago he lost the other one while at work in a starch factory. A suit for damages was brought and the boy said his father collected the money and then turned him out.

MANGLED ON THE RAIL.
An Old Man Killed While on His Way to Work.

Robert West, sixty years old, a wealthy resident of Berlin Village, L. I., was struck by a Long Island Railroad train near Penny Bridge early this morning, and instantly killed. The body was horribly mangled.

West was proprietor of a pork-packing establishment at Twenty-second street and Third avenue, South Brooklyn. He was crossing the tracks on his way to work when killed. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

Pepper in Star Boarder's Eyes.
Mrs. Mary Casey, of 574 Manhattan avenue, Brooklyn, runs a boarding-house. Charles Davis was star boarder. He disappeared owing $25. Mrs. Casey met Davis on the street and dunned him. He declined to pay. Mrs. Casey threw pepper in Davis's eyes. Mrs. Casey was held to-day in Even Street Court.

$1,000 BUT NO HUSBAND.
Miss Gardt Wins Her Bench of Promise Suit Against Hahn.

Miss Elise Gardt, of 222 East Thirty-second street, was to-day awarded by Sheriff's jury $1,000 in her action brought by Counsellor August P. Wagener, in the Court of Common Pleas, against Grocer Peter Hahn, of 347 Third avenue, for breach of promise.

Miss Gardt claims she became acquainted with Peter Hahn some years ago, being introduced in her aunt's house. The acquaintance ripened into love, and their marriage was fixed to take place in September, 1901. She says that Hahn absolutely refused to marry her. Then she began the present suit for damages. The defendant not appearing, the judgment was granted by default.
